

The old church building located at the corner of Sixth and Locust Streets. We used this building to print The Gospel Trumpeter from January 1974 to April 1988.

Workers collating the paper in the building on the left.

From the old . . .

Small and large printing presses. The large press is used to print The Gospel Trumpeter.

Sis. Dorothy Craig typing on the varitype machine when the paper was first started 20 years ago here at God's Acres.

Sis. Ivory Patton typing on a newer IBM composer in the preparation and layout area in the old church building pictured above.

The building above (located at God's Acres) is presently used to print the paper.

Sis. Rose Lewis typing on the new computer, which is used to type articles for the paper.

Printer and computer used for mailing, mailing labels, cassette labels, and to type articles for the paper.

. . . to the new

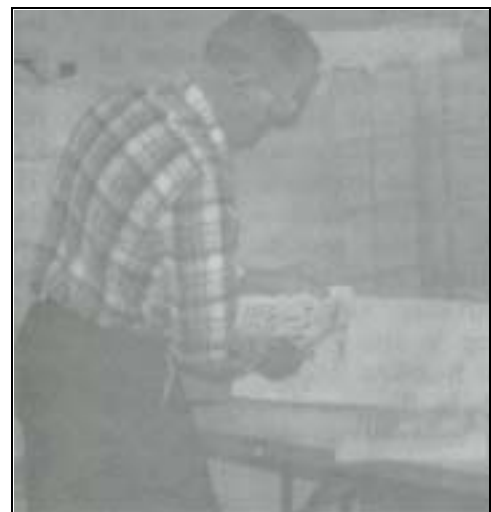

Workers collating the paper at God's Acres in the building pictured above.

Bro. Don Morris (printer) using the paper cutting machine.

Picture of the large press in its new location. Bro. Ronnie Kane pictured at right.

Bro. Kenny Romine working in the stapling area.